Agenda

Establishment of NSS General Rules and Code of Conduct.

Planning and distribution of work for upcoming Special Winter/Work Camps.

Student volunteer enrollment and discipline.

1. NSS General Rules & Regulations

The committee finalized the following standing rules for all enrolled volunteers:

The Motto: All activities must align with the NSS motto; "Not Me, But You."

Attendance: A minimum of 120 hours of social service per year is mandatory for certification.

Uniformity: Volunteers must wear the NSS badge/apron during all field activities and campus events.

Diary Maintenance: Every volunteer must maintain a daily diary of activities, signed by the Program Officer.

Code of Conduct: Strict discipline is expected. Any behavior tarnishing the college's reputation during field visits will lead to immediate disqualification.

2. Special Work Camp Planning

Regarding the upcoming rural health and labor camps, the following tasks were delegated:

Village Survey & Selection: (Assigned to: Dr. Vidyaman Kankal)

Identify a nearby village in the Chikhli region for the 7-day residential camp. Focus on areas with limited access to Ayurvedic healthcare.

Health Camp Logistics: (Assigned to: Dr. Dhanashree Zadbuke)

Coordinate the supply of Ayurvedic medicines, diagnostic tools, and scheduling of specialist consultants for the free health check-up camp.

Awareness Programs: (Assigned to: Dr. Manisha Sambpure)

Organize "Pathnatyas" (street plays) and rallies focusing on Swachh Bharat, De-addiction, and Yoga awareness.

3. Operational Decisions

Medical Kits: It was resolved that a dedicated first-aid kit must accompany every outdoor activity.

Documentation: All camp activities must be documented with "Before and After" photographs and a formal written report for university submission.

Note: The next meeting is scheduled for next month to review the volunteer list and finalize the camp dates.
